Permutation

- Definition
  A permutation of a set of distinct elements is an ordered arrangement of the elements of the set.

- Example
  Let $S = \{1, 2, 3\}$. The ordered arrangement $(3, 1, 2)$ is a permutation of S
- $(1, 2, 3)$ is a different permutation of S